

WEDDING

MCAUGHT — STURZAKER

A wedding of interest in the district was celebrated at Kajabbi on Monday last when Eva (eldest daughter of Mr. Nev. Sturzaker of Namman) was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Constable T. A. McNaught, who has been resident Constable at Kajabbi for the past four years. Rev. Father O'Meara officiated and the wedding was held at the living quarters of the Police Station.

The handsome bride looked graceful in her long frock of white bridal satin and beautiful hand worked veil (kindly lent by Mrs. Butt, Cloncurry). She carried a bouquet of white roses. Mr. Sturzaker gave his daughter away. Aloma, sister of the bride, looked lovely as bridesmaid, wearing blue georgette and white accessories with a bouquet of blue and white flowers. Mr. Nev. Sturzaker (Jnr.) brother of the bride, most ably carried out the duties of best man. There was an open invitation to everybody to attend the wedding breakfast and many complimentary speeches were made both to the bride and bridegroom. The popularity of the young couple was testified by the beautiful and valuable gifts received.

Mr. and Mrs. McNaught leave on Monday for a honeymoon to be spent in the south after which they expect a transfer to southern climates.

Mrs. Bert. Gordon, Mighty Atom, arranged all dress details which were greatly admired, also helped with the wedding breakfast assisted by many lady residents of Kajabbi.
