

GOSSIP

Engagement Notices and Approaching Marriages, also reports of Weddings, must be signed by contracting parties, and witnessed by a responsible person. Engagement and Wedding Photographs subject to the above conditions are acceptable for publication. Any contribution to this column must be signed, with full address.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Brown, Bogunda Station, who have been visiting Melbourne, are now at the Queen's Hotel and return west on Friday.

Mrs. J. Wilkinson, Flinders Street West, is visiting Mr. Isa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pope, Edgecliffe, Melton Hill, returned home by Monday night's plane after a brief visit to Mackay.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Power and young sons, Gerry and Bill, The Avenue, Hermit Park, are holidaying at Anadina, Magdalen Island.

Mrs. O. Krueger, accompanied by her daughter, Hazel, returned to Mackay after attending the wedding of her son, Stan, to Miss Aloma Stuttmaker which took place on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr, who have been touring the north, returned to Mackay on Wednesday's mail train.

Mrs. Ryan and two children, who have been holidaying at Ayr, returned to Brisbane on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burfein, left for Dalby on Wednesday evening's mail train to which place Mr. Burfein has been transferred from the Townsville post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Krueger, (formerly Aloma Stuttmaker) who were married on Tuesday, leave for Kajibbi on Saturday, in which place they will make their home.

Messames Hushan and Darne, who have been holidaying in Townsville and on the Tableland, returned to Brisbane on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Suthers, Melton Hill, leave by plane on Sunday for a two months' holiday in Tasmania. Short visits to Toowoomba and Melbourne will be made on the way south.

Mrs. C. Clegg, Brisbane, who brought her young granddaughter, Barbara Camp, from Brisbane to see her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Clegg, returned home on Monday by plane.

Mr. R. C. Ross left on Tuesday morning for Bowen, where he will spend two weeks.

Mrs. I. Sheppard, Gordonvale, arrived by mail train on Tuesday on a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Sub. Inspector and Mrs. E. Rountree.